

Steven J. Whittle

As the official host of the Better Homes & Gardens and Green Works Living Green Tour, Steven J. Whittle is touring the country sharing tips and information with consumers on how to live green today, tomorrow and in the future.

Last year Steven was the Co-Host and Carpenter on HGTV's 'Bad Bad Bath' and 'Save My Bath'.

Steven's professional experience includes work with The ESPY Awards, The View, DIFFA and several collaborations with Interior Designer Libby Langdon, who designed the Living Green Tour exhibit. Libby and Steven's work has graced the covers of Decorating Spaces, Hampton's Style and Hampton's Cottages & Gardens.

With a theater background, having earned degrees in English Literature and Theater at the University of Wisconsin, Steven moved to New York City in 1999. He appeared in several off-Broadway plays and started working behind the scenes as an art director, location scout, production manager and various other roles.

Steven's has learned throughout his career to be creative and resourceful about how to utilize and add to existing materials. Whether recycling props for a play or restoring woodwork in a residential project, Steven is always conscious of conservation. He founded Whittle's Art Department in 2001 based on this premise.
